BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON—Perhaps the bright day is coming when a congressman who carries a double bed with a "power trust" lobbyist can be sure of knowing his companion's real occupation.

First of Season's Radishes Apear; Caution Growers

Bennie Jones, 5 Miles South of Hope, Produces First Bunch

QUALITY REQUIRED

No Market at All for Yellow Tops or Pithy Old Radishes

The first bunch of the 1936 Hempstead county crop of radishes was brought to Hope Friday by Bennie Jones, farmer living five miles south of Hope.

Mr. Jones said he planted the radishes the latter part of February and that the weather had been favorable for rapid growth.

Movement of the Hempstead crop by the car load is expected to get under way within the next week or two. Radish buyers of Hope Friday urged co-operation of the farmer in marketing the crop.

In a statement, signed by E. M. McWilliams, J. W. Strickland, Henry Watkins and Hope Fruit Growers, they ask:

"For the good of the coming radish deal to the community, the grower and ourselves, we ask the co-operation of the grower in pulling quality radishes which will help to build and hold our market up, instead of tearing it down. The requirements are:

1. Uniform sized radishes in bunches.
  2. Uniform bunches.
  3. Do not bring pithy old radishes.
  4. Do not bring yellow tops.
- "Those who bring in radishes of bad quality will not find a market. We are due this to the grower who is taking pride in pulling quality."

Last of Mdivanis Is Oil Operator

David, 30, Only Survivor of Family of Georgian Princes

By HUBBARD KEAVY
Associated Press Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Of the three Mdivani brothers who made headlines the world over by their marriages and divorces, only 30-year-old David survives.

He, the most conservative of the trio, is credited with founding the oil company which almost overnight changed the fortunes of the penniless young Russian prince—Alexis, killed in an automobile accident in Spain last year, Serge, killed in a polo accident in Florida a few days ago, and himself.

David, organizer of companies controlling about 50 wells, came to California 11 years ago, when he was 19. He had only $300, which he and Serge had saved from their salaries as laborers in Texas and Oklahoma oil fields. David went to work in the oil fields here, meanwhile searching for oil property on which to sink wells of his own.

His first impression of Hollywood was that the youthful David had one friend in Hollywood—the star, Pola Negri, whom he and Serge had met on a boat coming to this country three years before. David was an oil worker, but

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

HOPE, Ark.—(AP)—A new leading lady, sincere in performance and recording an interesting voice, attracted previewers of Al Jolson's new film, "The Singing Kid."

This musical, directed by William Keighley, is typical Jolson stuff, brightened considerably by two numbers sung by the Yacht Club boys.

Cab Calloway and his band, Edward Everett Horton, Sybil Jason, Allen Jenkins, Claire Dodd, Lyle Talbot, Winifred Shaw and Mitchell and Dugan all contribute more or less effectively.

Something new in film musicals is the early sequence in which the Yacht Club quartet and Jolson "argue" in song for nearly a reel of fast musical patter that ends in mania.

But this new leading lady, now, introducing Miss Roberts. She is Beverly Roberts, 21, full of energy, bright and intelligent. She is five feet four and a curly blonde, and more interested in the movies themselves than in personal details of

Hope Votes for 2 School Directors Here on Saturday

Local Polls Open at City Hall From 2 o'Clock Until 6

COUNTY ELECTION

Various School Districts Electing Directors at This Time

Election of directors to school boards was being held Saturday in various districts of Hempstead county.

The Hope district will elect two directors for a term of three years to fill the vacancies left by J. R. Floyd and Charles Harrell whose terms are expiring.

Voters of the Hope district will also ballot on the 11 mill tax for school purposes. A special election was held last year in which a 7-mill tax was voted for refunding of the school debt—leaving the total school millage at the annual figure, 18.

There will be only one voting place in the Hope district. It will be at the city hall. Polls open at 2 p. m. and close at 6.

The present school board is composed of: Robert Wilson, president; J. R. Henry, secretary; Theo P. Witt; J. P. Duffie; J. R. Floyd and Charles Harrell.

Directors in several districts will be elected for a term of three years while others will be elected for a term of five years.

One director will be named in the following districts for a term of three years:

DeAnn, Providence, Oak Grove, Iron Springs, Nolan, Sennarion Island, Liberty Hill, Holly Grove, Walnut Grove, Elkhorn, Harmony, Oak Grove (col), Centerville, Chestnut Hill, Walker, Nazarene, Wesley Grove, Temple and Bradley.

One director will be elected for a term of five years from the following districts:

Blevins, Columbus, Rocky Mound, Fulton, Ozan, Palmos, Spring Hill, Saratoga, Washington, Piney Grove, Clow, Redland, Guernsey, Stephenson, Fair Star.

Five Voted Against Bill

Although Smith was furnished chiefly by power interests, which last summer were waging bitter warfare against the holding company bill, he and the six congressmen insisted they hadn't discussed that measure.

The record shows, however, that all six congressmen with the exception of Scroggins voted against the administration's "death sentence" clause, which was the crux of the fight. Pettengill played a leading part in the fight against the bill.

Relief Crisis in District

The "hunger march" to Washington which groups of the unemployed are organizing is likely to pick up plenty of recruits after its arrival.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia asked for $608,000 to carry the capital's relief load until July 1. The Budget Bureau cut that to $250,000. This city has no source of relief funds except through congress.

Officials assert there is no alternative but to cut 20,000 off the District relief rolls after April 1, leaving about 10,000 "unemployables," including dependents, still on.

It's a fair guess that the White House will intervene to avoid a possibly serious situation in Washington about the time the "hunger marchers" arrive.

Radicals Are Pleased

Whether they are aware of it or not, the budget-balancers intent on cutting down relief allowances are doing more than anyone else to foment a radical third party. Anyway, that's what the third party organizers think.

Communists and other radicals hope to make the unemployed a nucleus of such a party, although they don't expect any formidable national movement of the sort before 1940.

Their chief difficulty has been that of taking those voters away from Roosevelt and the widespread lowering of relief standards is the best card they have in the effort.

Families Driven Into Rain-Drenched Streets in Middle of Night

A FLOOD ON OHIO

Citizens Wake Up on Island—Snow Beats Against Flooded Pittsburgh

HARTFORD, Conn.—(Copyright Associated Press)—The muddy Connecticut river cut deep and unceasingly into the business area of this capital city Saturday, driving whole families at dawn into rain-drenched streets.

Rescue workers, after a sleepless night spent in streets darkened by the collapse of electric power service, intensified their activities at daybreak.

They worked under fresh downpours of intermittent rain, rescuing men, women and children.

Disaster in Ohio

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio.—(AP)—The Ohio's flood waters spread out over the lowland areas Saturday from Marietta to Cincinnati, in Ohio, and in West Virginia and Kentucky, as the river's crest moved toward Huntington, W. Va., with apparent abated force.

Residents of Proctorville, Ohio, awoke to find themselves on an island.

Snow in Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—(AP)—The elements struck another blow at the devastated flood regions Saturday as muddy snow blew over cold and homeless thousands, slowing down vital relief and rehabilitation operations.

In stricken Johnstown, and over the Pittsburgh and Wheeling areas, the blanket of snow fell even thicker.

The storm raised another disease threat—pneumonia.

Expect Leaders to Line Up for F. D.

Tydings' "Conversion" Points Way for Other Democratic Critics

By HERBERT FLUMMER
Associated Press Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Administration leaders are confident the next few weeks—Col. Henry Brockbridge's "stop Roosevelt" candidacy in presidential primaries notwithstanding—will see more and more party stalwarts who have opposed "new deal" policies come out for the reelection of President Roosevelt.

The recent declaration of Senator Tydings of Maryland is in their opinion, the start of the parade. Tydings, one of the severest critics of various administration policies, notably spending and foreign trade—has said that while he believes the President should modify substantially a number of his emergency activities, nevertheless "I do not propose to take a walk."

Many read into the impromptu statement of Senator Glass of Virginia on the senate floor during the heat of debate an indication that he feels the same way.

Borah Sighs Gums

Advance notices of the opening by Senator Borah of his campaign in the Ohio presidential primary at Youngstown indicate it will be by far the biggest gun yet fired on the political front.

Washington political correspondents were advised weeks in advance by those in charge of arrangements at Youngstown to make reservations and specify what telegraphic facilities they would need for covering the event. Such warnings usually are reserved for national political conventions or the actual launching of a party nominee's campaign.

Because it is Borah, however, and because the outcome in Ohio promises to shed so much light on the future political situation that event at Youngstown takes on real significance.

Political researchers in the capital, preparing for coming national conventions, have restricted what they believe to be the first actual platform adopted by a party.

It was ratified in Washington, D. C., May 11, 1932, by a fraction of the Democratic convention. Here are two of its major planks:

1. "Resolved, that a uniform system of internal improvements, sustained and supported by the general government, is calculated to secure, in the highest degree, the harmony, strength and permanency of the republic."

2. "Resolved, that the indiscriminate removal of public officers for a mere difference of political opinion, is a gross abuse of power; and that the doctrine, lately boldly preached in the United States senate, that 'the victor belongs the spoils of the vanquished' is detrimental to the interests, corrupting to the morals, and dangerous to the liberties of the country."

A Flooded Pennsylvania City

Routed from their homes in the Susquehanna River valley when the storm rose to the highest level in 70 years, residents used row-boats to reach Kingston, Pa., across the valley from Wilkes-Barre. Boats plying along one of Kingston's main streets presented the odd spectacle pictured above. Flood refugees huddled against buildings while waiting for U. S. Army trucks to carry them to safety. More than 12,000 were reported homeless in the area, many of whom were in dire peril as available boats proved inadequate to rescue all.

D. B. Thompson Announces Red Cross Campaign to Aid East

D. B. Thompson, Red Cross chairman of Hempstead county, appealed Saturday for funds to aid flood refugees in the Eastern states.

Mr. Thompson said that the WPA office at Hope had contributed about $30 toward a quota of $200 for this county.

Mr. Thompson said that donations would be received by him at R. M. LaGrone, Jr., & Co., store on South Elm street, office of Hope Star and Miss Gene Chamberlain at the WPA office.

Indian Tribe Name Their Lucky Piece

"Cherokee" Recalls Time They Were Saved From the Warriors

COLORADO SPRINGS.—(AP)—When W. T. (Bully) Van de Graaff, Colorado college football coach, and Mrs. Van de Graaff decided to christen their infant daughter Cherokee, it was a gesture to the memory of a kindly Indian chief.

About 1800, when warring Creek Indians menaced the Alabama plantation of the coach's forebears, a Cherokee chief took the family inside his stockade while his tribe battled the Creeks.

While the family was thus protected, a baby girl was born. The only reward the friendly chief would accept was the promise the girl would be named for his tribe.

The name Cherokee has been given to a girl in every generation of the family since.

Officers of Two Counties Hunting Kidnapers of Pair

Young Bandit Gets $30 in Cash—Seizes Man, Girl in Flight

HE RELEASES THEM

Bloodhounds Follow Trail Toward Red Lake, But Lose It

Hempstead and Miller county officers continued their search Saturday for a young bandit who early Friday night held up the Fulton toll bridge of approximately $30 and kidnaped two persons in his flight from officers.

It was the sixth or seventh time the toll-gate has been robbed.

The couple that were kidnaped are A. W. Stevens and Miss Myrtle Lee Gilbert of Texarkana. They were released unharmed by the lone highwayman about a mile and a half east of the bridge on Highway 67.

The bandit had just completed rifling the tills of the toll house when Stevens and Miss Gilbert drove upon the bridge from Texarkana.

Stevens was met by city officers as he neared Hope. They returned to the spot where the bandit left the car and disappeared into the woods.

Bloodhounds on Scene

Bloodhounds were rushed to the scene by sheriff's offices of Hempstead, and Miller counties. The trail led south toward Red Lake for a distance of three miles and then was lost.

Officers searched that area without success.

The bandit was described by J. O. Pool, bridge keeper as being a man about 30 years old, dark complexioned and weighing about 130 pounds. He was dressed in unbuttoned and worn, a dirty gray cap.

"I had just completed checking my tickets," said Pool, "when I heard a step in the north door of the toll office almost simultaneously heard the noise of a pistol being cocked."

"I looked around and saw the man standing there with the big gun in his hand."

Gets the Cash

Pool said the man wasted no time forcing him to hand over all cash in "right" amounting to about $50. The toll bridge keeper said the bandit then relieved him of his gun, took the shells out of it and pushed it into the pockets of his trousers.

"The man kept saying that I had not given him all of my money," Pool continued. "And we were arguing about that when the Texarkana car drove upon the bridge. The man darted out of the toll bridge to meet them. I didn't know who the young people were at that time and you can bet I didn't poke my head out of that toll house to find out. The fellow already had threatened to blow my head off."

South Africa Asks Air Raid Guards

Italian Expedition Apparently Worries British Dominion

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa.—(AP)—Far from the ramed forces of Europe, but nevertheless sensitive to the possibilities of invasion, the Union of South Africa is building up military protection.

A complete reorganization of defense facilities will be demanded, it is expected by Oswald Pirow, minister of defense, at the next parliamentary session.

At present, it is claimed, South Africa has no anti-tank guns, only one-third enough rifles for the 200,000 men who would join the colors if called, and only a dozen obsolete airplanes.

Pirow, it is reported, will ask for 24 regiments of infantry, ten batteries of artillery, two bomber squadrons and one squadron of fighter aircraft.

The development of long range bombing planes has made the Union vulnerable to attack, Minister Pirow said in opening a new airport here.

"Two and one-half years ago we counted on 1,000 miles as the effective range of heavy bombers from their base. Today there is the possibility of heavy bombers with a range of more than 3,000 miles," he said.

Geographically, however, the Union is considered fortunate inasmuch as there are only a few points where landing parties could obtain a foothold to back up bombing raids.

I desire to state that the courtesy with which I was met on this particular visit, it will linger with me a long, long time, "to hold against my heart, when time is gone," and once again, I have reason to say, that "The best people on earth live in Hope and Hempstead county," which has been my deepest impression of the past week.

By DALE M'KINNEY

The Girls Reserve Club of the Prescott High School will be the guest of the First Baptist church Sunday, March 22. This meeting will be one of the required meetings of the Girls Reserve.

The Zenith Literary Society of the high school gave an interesting program Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. It was called the "Amateur Hour." Bill Ed Highsmith was the radio announcer. A song was sung by Dorothy Carlisle, born yesterday in Prescott, song by Thomas Wallace and a song by Coach Doble Huie.

Mrs. Horace Bemis' house on East Elm street is nearing completion rapidly.

Choir practice will be held at the Presbyterian church Friday night at 7:30.

A variety program sponsored by the Eastern Star will be given at the Junior High School auditorium Friday night, March 27, at 7:45.

Actual construction of the new community center gymnasium building will start Monday morning when work will start on laying of the foundation for the new 100x150 foot building. Bob Fincher, Nevada county engineer for the Works Progress Administration announced, Mr. Fincher also stated that 800 sacks of cement and 1000 feet of 1-inch reinforcing steel were requisitioned for purchase for the gym job Friday. Blue prints and detailed plans for the building have been completed by Mr. Weaver, the architect. The WPA money has been allotted, most of the money for the local contribution has been raised, and everything is reported to be ready to start construction of the new building on Monday.

Work was started some two weeks ago tearing down the old Primary building and clearing the ground for the new building. This work is expected to be completed this week. One of the basements of the primary building is being filled in and it is expected that the other side will be used to house the heating plant of the new gymnasium building. Some of the materials from the Primary building have been salvaged and are expected to be used in the construction of a negro school building. The old gymnasium at the high school has also been dismantled and some of the materials from it will be used for forms and scaffolds in the new gym building.

The new building will occupy almost a quarter of a block. It will front on West Elm street with the front of the building set back from the sidewalk about 20 feet, then extending back for 150 feet.

The building is being constructed by the Works Progress Administration and is being sponsored by the local Young Business Men's Association.

he also was a prince and his title impressed Hollywood when Miss Negrin introduced him at her parties. So David didn't stay long in the oil fields. When Mack Bennett met the young prince, the producer said: "I'll bet you'd look swell in a dress suit. How about becoming one of my actors?" For $150 a week, David became a Bennett comedian and the friends he made through studio and social contacts helped greatly later in financing the Mdivanis Oil company.

"Dazzled" by Mae Murray At a party at Polo's David met Mae Murray. He was an actor of small consequence—an actor because of a Bennett whim—while Mae was one of the screen's reigning favorites. Mae took an immediate fancy to the young prince and David confessed later he was "completely bowled over" by Miss Murray's beauty. Meanwhile, Serge married Pola.

The union of Mae and David was the second of a series of front-page marriages in the Mdivanis family. A son, Koran, now nine years old, was born to Mae and David. He is in his mother's custody and is supported by a $125,000 trust fund created by his father at the time of the divorce in 1933.

David obtained an option on a lot in Venice, Calif., and Serge came here to help him raise money to sink the first well. They were certain they had discovered a rich new field and by the force of their personalities and their enthusiasm, were able to sell stock to many of their friends. When the first well was sunk, the oil gushed forth in quantities that exceeded all expectations.

Serge owned several wild mines which, a friend associated with him in several other ventures believes, have been paying him several thousand dollars weekly. When Alexis was killed seven months ago, he left his fortune of several millions to his two brothers and his two sisters. Serge, this same informant says, likely will leave his estate to David and his two sisters.

Serge liked to be called "Prince Mdivanis," and always spoke of himself, with his tongue in his cheek, as "the prince." David preferred being plain "Mr. Mdivanis." He might have gone a long way on the screen, presuming he had acting talent, if he had attempted to capitalize on his title. But he chose the simpler name of "David Manners" for his movie work.

She thinks movies are to be increasingly important in the entertainment world, and she thinks it regrettable that so often Hollywood's attitude is that of a certain supervisor who said:

THE CURIOUS WORLD

CROWS

ARE KNOWN THE WORLD OVER, AND THE COMMON CROW OF THE UNITED STATES IS THE BEST KNOWN SPECIES. ITS FONDNESS FOR THE FARMERS' CROPS HAS CAUSED IT TO BE CLASSED AS A CRIMINAL, AND IN MANY STATES, A BOUNTY IS PLACED ON ITS HEAD.

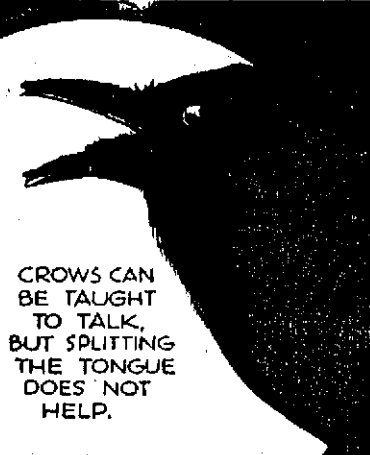

by WILFRED FERGUSON

THE CROW'S SUCCESS IS DUE MAINLY TO ITS EXTREME CAUTION. EVERY GATHERING OF CROWS HAS A LOOKOUT, OR SENTINEL, TO SPREAD THE ALARM WHEN DANGER APPROACHES.

© 1936 BY NEA SERVICE, INC. 3-22

THE CROW IS A SELF-NAMED BIRD. IN ALMOST EVERY LAND, THE NAME IS DERIVED FROM ITS CAWING CALL. IN SCOTLAND IT IS CALLED A "CRAW." THE NETHERLANDERS CALL IT "KRAAI." GERMANS SAY "KRAHE." IN SWEDEN IT IS "KRAKA." IN INDIA, "KAKKA," AND IN DENMARK IT GOES BY THE NAME OF "KRAGE."

CROWS CAN BE TAUGHT TO TALK, BUT SPLITTING THE TONGUE DOES NOT HELP.

ABOUT 650 DIFFERENT FOOD ITEMS HAVE BEEN FOUND IN THE STOMACHS OF CROWS.

ALL CROWS ARE NOT BLACK. SOME ARE GRAY, AND SOME, LIKE THE CLARK CROW SHOWN HERE, ARE MOSTLY WHITE.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

By Blosser

BUT, I TELL YOU... OSSIE IS GONE!!

I KNOW, MY BOY... BUT WE MUST CONSIDER HIM A SACRIFICE TO THE PROGRESS OF SCIENCE!

HE... HE THOUGHT THAT DOOR WAS A CLOSET, AND STEPPED RIGHT OUT INTO SPACE... AND WITHOUT A PARACHUTE, TOO!

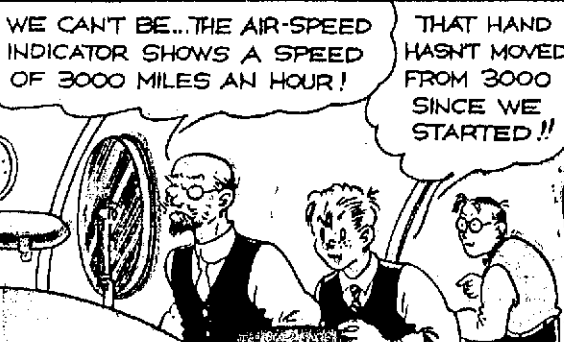

BOYS, WE SHOULD BE PASSING SOME PLANETS SOON! KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN!

PROFESSOR, SOMETHING IS GOING WRONG... WE SEEM TO BE SLOWING DOWN!!

WE CAN'T BE... THE AIR-SPEED INDICATOR SHOWS A SPEED OF 3000 MILES AN HOUR!

THAT HAND HASN'T MOVED FROM 3000 SINCE WE STARTED!!

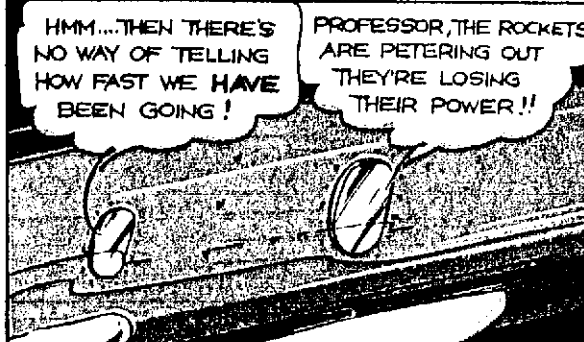

AND, NO WONDER! LOOK... UNSCREW THAT GLASS FACE ON THE DIAL!

MY GOSH... THAT HAND WASN'T EVEN CONNECTED... IT'S BEEN LYING ON THE DIAL!!

HMM... THEN THERE'S NO WAY OF TELLING HOW FAST WE HAVE BEEN GOING!

PROFESSOR, THE ROCKETS ARE PETERING OUT... THEY'RE LOSING THEIR POWER!!

WE MUST BE NEARING OUR DESTINATION... GET READY FOR A LANDING! RELEASE THE CHUTE... IT'LL MAKE OUR DESCENT GRADUAL!!

WE'VE TURNED OVER! WE'RE FALLING BACKWARDS!!

GRAB THE PARACHUTE LEVER... GRAB IT! WE'VE GOT TO RELEASE THE CHUTE!!

IT WON'T BUDGE, PROFESSOR... IT WON'T BUDGE! IT'S STUCK FAST!!

MONSTERS OF THE PREHISTORIC PAST

MURAENOSAURUS

A LARGE MARINE REPTILE OF THE ORDER OF PLESIOSAURUS (PLESIOS - MEANING ALMOST). THE FOSSIL REMAINS OF THIS MONSTER WERE RECOVERED IN EUROPE FROM SEDIMENTARY DEPOSITS LAID DOWN MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY MILLION YEARS AGO. LIKE THE OTHER GREAT REPTILES, NO PLEIOSAUR IS KNOWN TO HAVE SURVIVED THE MESOZOIC ERA... THUS DRIVING ANOTHER NAIL INTO THE COFFIN OF THE SEA SERPENT THEORY.

DON'T DRINK YOUR MILK SO FAST, HERKY, YOU'LL BE SICK!

GOSH, MOM, THAT TASTED GOOD-NOW CAN I HAVE SOME OF THAT CHICKEN THAT'S IN THE ICE BOX?

NO, THAT'S ALL YOU CAN HAVE, SONNY-COME ALONG, NOW-IT'S PAST YOUR BED-TIME...

WELL, GOOD NIGHT, MOM, BUT I'M STILL HUNGRY!

GOODNIGHT, HERKY..

I'LL JUST SIT UP AN' WAIT TILL THEY GO TO BED!

11 O'CLOCK

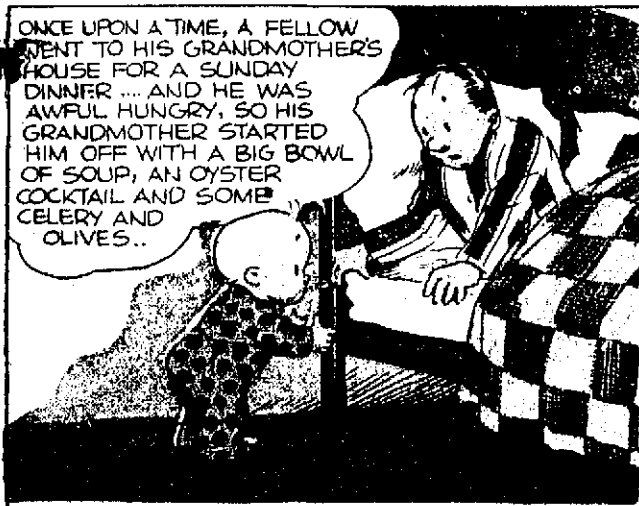

THEY OUGHT TO BE ASLEEP BY THIS TIME....I HOPE MOM IS, ANYWAY.....

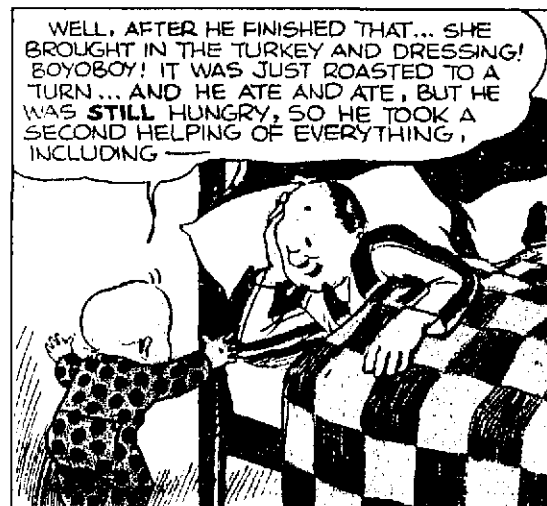

NOW, IF I CAN JUST KEEP FROM WAKING MOM UP, I'LL BE ALL SET...

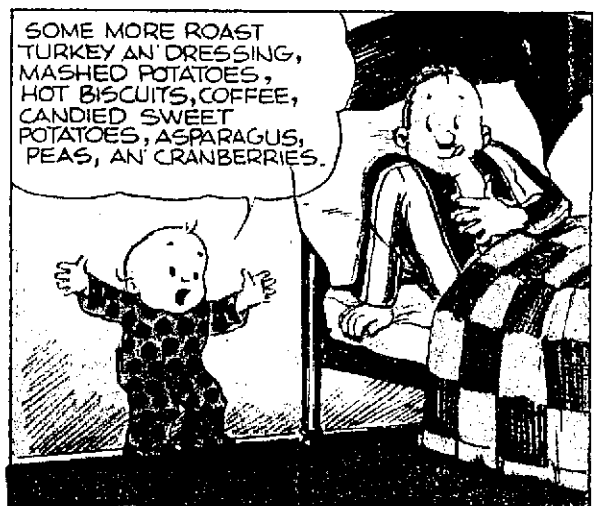

SHHHHHH! HEY, POP, WAKE UP! I GOT A SWELL STORY TO TELL YOU!

ONCE UPON A TIME, A FELLOW WENT TO HIS GRANDMOTHER'S HOUSE FOR A SUNDAY DINNER... AND HE WAS AWFUL HUNGRY, SO HIS GRANDMOTHER STARTED HIM OFF WITH A BIG BOWL OF SOUP, AN OYSTER COCKTAIL AND SOME CELERY AND OLIVES..

WELL, AFTER HE FINISHED THAT... SHE BROUGHT IN THE TURKEY AND DRESSING! BOYBOY! IT WAS JUST ROASTED TO A TURN... AND HE ATE AND ATE, BUT HE WAS STILL HUNGRY, SO HE TOOK A SECOND HELPING OF EVERYTHING, INCLUDING

SOME MORE ROAST TURKEY AN' DRESSING, MASHED POTATOES, HOT BISCUITS, COFFEE, CANDIED SWEET POTATOES, ASPARAGUS, PEAS, AN' CRANBERRIES.

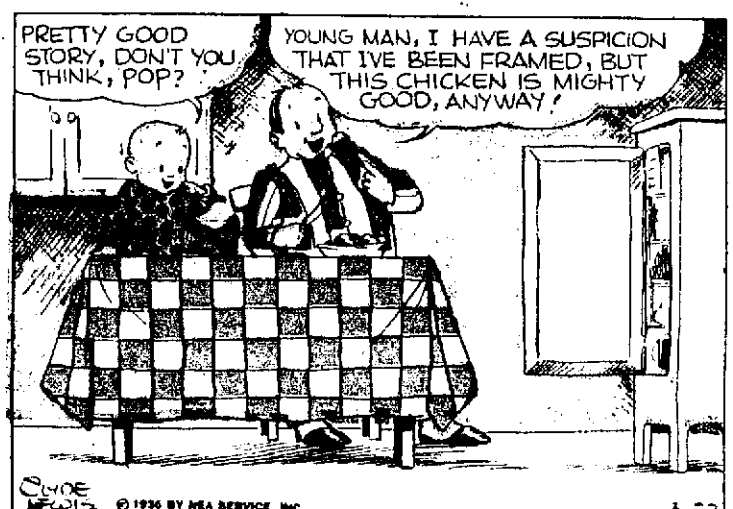

AND AFTER HE FINISHED THAT, HE POLISHED OFF WITH A BIG CUT OF PLUM PUDDING..... BY THE WAY, POP, I THINK THERE'S SOME COLD CHICKEN IN THE ICE BOX.

SHHHH DON'T WAKE YOUR MOTHER UP!

WELL, THIS FELLOW I'M TELLING YOU ABOUT, WOUND UP SO FULL OF HIS GRANDMOTHER'S DINNER THAT HE WASN'T HUNGRY AGAIN UNTIL TWO WEEKS LATER!

SHHH!

PRETTY GOOD STORY, DON'T YOU THINK, POP?

YOUNG MAN, I HAVE A SUSPICION THAT I'VE BEEN FRAMED, BUT THIS CHICKEN IS MIGHTY GOOD, ANYWAY!
